20nine Design Tapped for Philadelphia Chamber Expo Site

Conshohocken, Pa. (MAY 2005) – The Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce has tapped 20nine Design Studios to create a new Web identity for the Greater Philadelphia Business Expo, the Chamber's biggest event and the Philadelphia area's largest business-to-business trade show.

Traditionally a day long face-to-face networking session, the Expo is becoming more reliant on the Internet to prepare small- to mid-sized businesses to capitalize on opportunities before and after the big event. 20nine Design recreation of the Expo Web site will enable business owners throughout the Philadelphia region to position themselves to expand their client lists and grow their companies.
